A Card from Mr. Lemmon.

J. S. LEMMON, Esq., of Baltimore, has sent to us the following card.

Our first remark is that we quoted Mr. LEMMON'S propositions word for word as they appeared in a Baltimore paper. We never intentionally misstate anybody's pro-which the Democrats of Virginia were treated by the New York Tribune when that journal charged upon them the sins of the Coalitionists, who are its own allies. The Tribune's misrepresentation of the facts we attributed to nothing more than ignorance. The same paper, in its issue of Tuesday, returns to the subject of the debt at present he hasn't much faith in the efficacy of the remedy which a week or two ago he regarded as amply sufficient to secure to the coupon-holders their rights. In fact, he repeats in substance the Chief justice's words, saying that if the coupon-holder gets his money after proving his renton, but he gained access to it, and, it is coupons to he genuing, he treated by the New York Tribune when at present he hasn't much faith in the efficacy of the remedy which a week or two ago he regarded as amply sufficient to secure to the coupon-holders their rights.
